

250 S. Wacker

Chicago, Illinois

LEED Registered

The Ground Floor lobby of this downtown office building presents a serene mix of materials, forms and lighting. The sleek use of stone, wood and cove lighting planes underscore the modern simplicity and elegance of the interior design. The building's exterior geometry and finishes are incorporated into the lobby design, thereby blending the interior and exterior elements into a unified whole.

